

THE SHERATON NASSAU BEACH RESORT TO HOST MARCH 23, 2011 OFFSHORE RIB RALLY

Resort Offering Local Residents Unique Chance to View Exciting International Speed Boat Races with Special $99 Day Pass; $129 Overnight Bahamian Resident Rate Also Available

Nassau, The Bahamas (March, 17, 2011) – The Sheraton Nassau Beach Resort is welcoming locals and boat racing enthusiasts alike during the March 23, 2011 Offshore Rib Rally 785. The ideal location to enjoy this speed boat racing spectacular, the resort is offering special discounted rates in tandem with the event. Spectators taking advantage of the resort's prime location will be able to view the boats in an exhilarating head-to-head race from a stage specially positioned on its white-sand beach.

Two unique offers are available for those who want to make the race a fun-filled day or seize the moment for an overnight "stay-cation." Both the $99 Day Pass, and discounted $129 Bahamas Resident Rate include access to the resort's incredible offerings, including three freshwater pools with oversized whirlpools; complimentary non-motorized watersports such as kayaking, snorkeling, and windsurfing; and delectable food and beverage options like Amici, A Trattoria, Bimini Market, Dolphin Grill, Caribe Café, Telegraph Bar and Edgewater Bar. Overnight guests extending their visit to the resort after the day's festivities will enjoy unrivaled accommodations with breathtaking views of the ocean.

"We are thrilled that the Rib Rally chose our resort as its 2011 home base," said Andrew Neubauer, director of sales and marketing for the Sheraton Nassau Beach Resort. "We hope our neighbors will come out to enjoy the races and take advantage of this fantastic way to get away for the day, experiencing all of the resort's other activities and offerings."

During the Rib Rally's visit to The Bahamas, eight rigid 24-foot inflatable boats – which have traveled from the Netherlands – will compete. The boats will feature teams of four, including both male and female competitors.
